Medford Area Public School District has identified goals and direction for the district through the strategic plan, which was adopted by the board on April 24, 2017. The committee was made up of approximately 60 committee members, represented by community members, school district employees and board members.

The district administrator or their designee shall develop an action plan and timetable to facilitate the successful completion of the strategic plan. The plan will be monitored and adjusted, when necessary, throughout the year.
