The Medford Area Public School District Board of Education may expel a student from school when it finds:

- The student guilty of repeated refusal or neglect to obey school rules or regulations;
- That a student knowingly conveyed or caused to be conveyed any threat or false information concerning an attempt or alleged attempt being made or to be made to destroy any school property by means of explosives;
- That the student engaged in conduct while at school or while under the supervision of a school authority which endangered the property, health or safety of others;
- That a student, while not at school or under the supervision of a school authority, engaged in conduct which endangered the property, health or safety of others at school or under the supervision of a school authority or endangered the property, health or safety of any employee or board of education member of the school district in which the student is enrolled;
- That the student, who is at least 16 years old, repeatedly engaged in conduct while at school or while under the supervision of a school authority that disrupted the ability of school authorities to maintain order or an educational atmosphere at school or at an activity supervised by a school authority and that such conduct does not constitute grounds for expulsion as outlined above;

and is satisfied the interest of the school demands the student's expulsion.

Any time school officials determine that a student has possessed or used any firearm, bomb, explosive, or similar destructive device while at school or while under the supervision of a school authority, an administrator may refer the student and the incident to law enforcement or another representative of the criminal or juvenile justice system. An administrator must also suspend the student, commence expulsion proceedings, and the board shall expel the student from school for at least one year. The board may modify the expulsion requirement identified in this paragraph on a case-by-case basis, provided that any such modification is documented in writing. The requirements of this paragraph (1) do not apply to a student who is legally hunting in the school forest, as described above in this Policy; and (2) shall be construed and implemented in a manner that is consistent with the requirements of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.

Expulsion procedures shall be carried out in accordance with state and federal law.
